About Us

The Playhouse opened in 1971 with the debut of our first show, "The Bad Seed". Plays were performed at several venues before purchasing a building in Midway. In 2000 we moved to our current residence. Dozens and dozens of shows have been produced in this theatre. Now with our 2017 renovation complete, we can continue to produce exceptional plays, musicals, and children's theatre. The Playhouse established a scholarship program to benefit one performing arts student per year to assist with their college education. We also hold FREE workshops in acting, improvisation, and directing. There are many opportunities at Twin Lakes Playhouse: directing, producing, acting, sound and lights, backstage, costumes, makeup, building props and sets, tickets, ushering, working in concessions, parking cars, serving on the Board of Directors, many more!

My Old Lady

By Israel Horovitz

Directed by Angie Leach. When a down on his luck man inherits an apartment in Paris, he plans to solve his financial woes by selling it. He arrives at the doorstep and discovers that the elderly woman living there has lifetime habitation rights under an arcane French law and she is not about to give them up. She invites him to stay in the spacious apartment with her and her outspoken daughter. A spiral of friendship, romance, and uncomfortable revelations affect all in this poignant play.

November 15-December 1, 2019

by Larry Shue

Directed by Dianne Pankau. While visiting a Georgia fishing lodge, “Froggy” LeSueur brings along a friend, shy Charlie, who is fearful of conversation. “Froggy” tells everyone Charlie is from an exotic foreign country and speaks no English. Since everyone thinks he cannot understand, Charlie hears many damaging revelations, which sets up the wildly funny climax in which things go uproariously awry for the “bad guys” while the “good guys” emerge triumphant.

Agatha Christie's AND THEN THERE WERE NONE

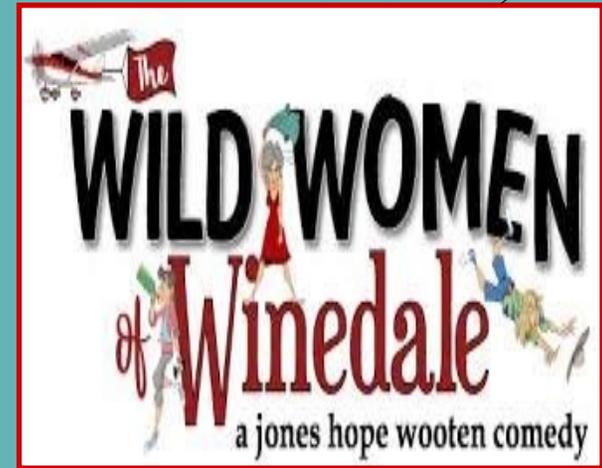

January 17-February 2, 2020

Directed by Mike Horberg. Ten strangers are summoned to a remote island. All that the guests have in common is a wicked past they’re unwilling to reveal and a secret that will seal their fate. For each had been marked for murder. As the weather turns and the group is cut off from the mainland, the bloodbath begins and one by one they are brutally murdered in accordance with the lines of a sinister nursery rhyme.

48th Year of Entertainment

June 12-28, 2020

Directed by Anne Johnson. This joyful and exuberant comedy focuses on three women at crossroads in their lives– the Wild sisters of Winedale, Virginia– Fanny and Willa and their frustratingly quirky sister-in-law, Johnnie Faye. This trio has supported and cheered one another through life’s highs and lows, including the demise of two of their husbands. They really need each other now as Fanny experiences an inappropriate reaction to her 60th birthday while Willa is so stressed out from her nursing job she resorts to vodka and speed knitting to cope and Johnnie Faye, determined to put her year of widowhood behind her, desperately tries to find a man, preferably with a house as hers is at the bottom of a Florida sinkhole. This romp is guaranteed to drive you wild with laughter, yet ultimately touching your heartstrings.

CATFISH MOON

BY LADDY SARTIN

April 3-19, 2020

Directed by Patti Butler. The old fishing pier has just fallen under the magic of another Catfish Moon. It was the favorite hangout for three best friends when they were kids. Now Curley, Gordon and Frog are older, and they have tasted the bitterness of life as well as the sweetness, and the pressures and problems that come with middle age have eroded the closeness between Frog and Gordon, particularly when Frog finds out Gordon is dating his ex-wife. The three try to amend by going on an overnight fishing trip. The poignant resolution of the story is that life is too precious and short to let true friendship get away.
