LET OUR STARS SHINE FOR YOU

Twin Lakes playhouse first opened in 1971. Plays were performed in several venues until we settled at our current location. We have been entertaining Mtn. Home residents now for 53 years.

Currently we offer 5 shows a season. Included are dramas, mysteries, and comedies with occasional musicals and children's productions.

We are currently offering Improv workshops and Readers' Theater events. From time to time, we also run an Educational Outreach program for teaching stage presence, have a Director's Workshop as well as Children's Acting Classes which culminate in a performance of a children's show.

Twin Lakes Playhouse also has an established scholarship program to benefit one student a year wishing to continue their performing arts in college. For each production we do a benefit performance, where a non-profit sells tickets and keeps all funds from ticket sales, except $150.00 that helps fund our Scholarship program.

If you would be interested in participating in any capacity, Membership is $15 a year, and you can volunteer where needed, and see shows for free!

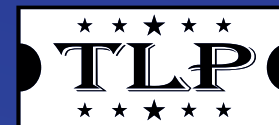

Twin Lakes Playhouse would like to thank our generous PATRONS – the backbone of our theater. Our decades of success is only possible due to their financial assistance and thoughtful encouragement throughout the years. We appreciate each and every one!

Part Monty Python, part Sherlock Holmes, The Play That Goes Wrong is a play within a play that follows the Cornley Drama Society's production of the 1920's whodunit 'The Murder at Haversham Manor'. With madcap mishaps and choreographed chaos ranging from an unconscious leading lady, to a corpse that can't play dead, a self-destructing set, and actors who trip over everything (including their lines). Nevertheless, the accident-prone thespians battle against all odds to make it through to their final curtain call, with hilarious consequences!

Director: Olivia Wolfe
Anthony and Rosemary are two introverted misfits straddling 40. Anthony has spent his entire life on a cattle farm in rural Ireland, a state of affairs that - due to his painful shyness - suits him well. Rosemary lives right next door, determined to have him, watching the years slip away. With Anthony's father threatening to disown him and a land feud simmering between their families, Rosemary has every reason to fear romantic catastrophe. But then, in this very Irish Story with a surprising depth of poetic passion, these yearning, eccentric souls fight their way towards solid ground and some kind of happiness. Their journey is heartbreaking, funny as hell, and ultimately deeply moving. Outside Mullingar is a compassionate, delightful work about how it's never too late to take a chance on love.

Director: Dianne Pankau
A celebration of America with beautiful, patriotic music from America's favorite anthems, along with poignant and uplifting original compositions. This Norman Rockwell-esque review offers slices of life in America, woven together through a series of vignettes that are based on the Preamble to the United States Constitution. Picnics - tributes to the military - letters home from the war - all become a patchwork quilt of American life. This musical will serve as a fine reminder that the remarkable words written by our forefathers many years ago is still a living document, part of our lives every day.

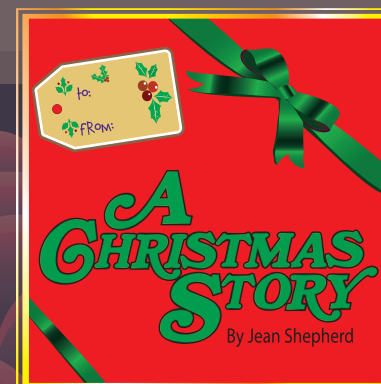

Director: Mike Horberg
How far would a man go to protect his family, his interests, and his legacy? Joe Keller desperately wants to financially secure and maintain the legacy he spent so many years building, ready to hand it down to his surviving son Chris. At the same time, Joe's wife Kate is still waiting for their eldest son Larry to return from the war, determined that Larry is still alive and will return to marry the girl-next-door, Ann. Ann has moved on and fallen in love with Chris, wanting to get married. All My Sons creates a post-war American family in a tragic downfall of lies, greed, love and loss, and demands its audience examine their own social responsibilities to all the sons of American wars.

Humorist Jean Shepherd's memoir of growing up in the Midwest in the 1940s follows nine-year-old Ralphie Parker in his quest to get a genuine Red Ryder BB gun under the tree for Christmas. Ralphie pleads his case before his mother, his teacher, and even Santa Claus himself at Higbee's Department Store. The consistent response: "You'll shoot your eye out!" All the elements from the beloved motion picture are here, including the family's temperamental exploding furnace, Scut Farkas, the school bully, the boys' experiment with a wet tongue on a cold lamp post, the Little Orphan Annie decoder pin, Ralphie's father winning a lamp shaped like a woman's leg in a net stocking, Ralphie's fantasy scenarios and more!
